4 After confirmation, confirm the transfer of data from IS/STAG to your alumni profile.

Registrace právě studujícího absolventa

At this moment, you are logged in as both a student and a (future) graduate in the Graduates Club module. This fact greatly simplifies your registration to the club. If you click on "Take data from IS/STAG and continue" button, the data related to your current studies (which you will surely complete soon) will be automatically copied to your alumni profile. On the next page, please check the data, give your consent to use the application and save the form.
